

HOW TO GET GUYS: A Guide

by Aubri Anne Carrell

Dear fellow members of the female gender, let's face it, understanding men is hard, but not entirely impossible. I have here a short list of simple things you can do to get guys to like you, if followed precisely. I myself am not a boy, but I have interviewed a variety of them to find out what we can do to gain their affection. I have tried some of these for myself, and they work great! It's fool-proof. So without further ado, the list:

- 1) Men think arrogance is very unattractive in females, so make sure to make degrading remarks toward yourself frequently.
- 2) If it appears he didn't hear you the first time, keep nagging him until he does whatever it is you're asking. He'll appreciate the reminder.
- 3) Despite what everyone tells you, men have a secret shopping fetish. They're happy to go with you to the mall with you all day.
- 4) Guys are only attracted to women with a thigh gap. If you don't have one, fake it. Walk with your legs spread apart just enough that you can see between your legs. You may look awkward, but it's a sacrifice you'll have to make.

5) If you get mad at them, don't say anything because you don't want to upset them. Just leave subtle hints so they can pick up on what they did wrong. If they don't get it after a few days, then it's okay to blow up in their face. They deserve it at that point.

6) Guys think it's cute when you fish for compliments.

7) If you like a guy, stalk him. Follow him around everywhere he goes and ask him what he's doing all the time. He'll like that you're showing an interest in him.

8) Wear as little clothes as possible. Shallow men who only care about your body will come flocking, and trust me, that's the kind of man you want.

9) Guys think sassy girls are cute, so try to start a lot of drama and gossip about your friends behind their back. It gives you character.

10) If he doesn't reply to a text right away, keep texting him and ask why he's not replying. He'll appreciate the concern.

11) Take forever to get ready. The more time you take, the more beautiful you'll look so he won't mind waiting at all.

12) Guys love watching movies with you so make sure you pick a good one, like The Notebook.

- 13) You don't want to appear anorexic, so eat as much food as you possibly can in front of him.
- 14) Make sure he knows how much he means to you. Constantly remind him that he's like a brother to you so he knows you never want to leave him.
- 15) Guys don't like girls who are uncomfortably shy around them. Get comfortable and let 'em rip.
- 16) Be a strong independent female who doesn't need a man and constantly remind him of it, so he knows his place.
- 17) Guys like the natural look, so feel free to avoid shaving.
- 18) They want to be involved in your life so fill them in on every excruciating detail of your day.
- 19) If he texts you something cute, screen-shot it and post it on Facebook so that everyone can read it. He'll be flattered with all the compliments he gets for being a good boyfriend.
- 20) Men are turned on by the color red so in order to make him attracted to you, cake on tons of bright red lipstick. It may get on your teeth and every cup you drink out of, but it's worth it to get the guy.
- 21) If a dude tells you your pretty, make sure you immediately reply with "No I'm not," so he knows you don't think too highly of yourself.

22) Men enjoy being chivalrous, so purposely don't wear a coat when it's cold out because then they'll have an opportunity to loan you a sweatshirt. Then keep it for as long as you want. They'll feel good about themselves that you're so warm because of them.

23) Talk all the time. It shows how interesting you are.

24) Guys want to know that you're in for the long haul, so as soon as you're in a relationship, talk about commitment right away.

25) To let guys know you're interested, always be touching them constantly. They like having girls cling to their arms while they're trying to talk to their friends. If you do that, they'll date you for sure.
